

Get to Know You

Materials: different colors of M&Ms, Starbursts, or sticky notes, etc.

Directions:

Distribute color objects

Find someone with a different color. Take turns talking about the information that your color should share. At the signal, exchange colors and go seek a new group.

Yellow – If you had to use one word to describe yourself, what would it be and why?

Blue – What has been your favorite part of the beginning of the school year? Why?

Green – What is your favorite movie? Why?

Red – What are you looking forward to the most for the upcoming holiday season? Why?
