

MASC Advisors Bulletin November 2016

Maryland Association of Student Councils (MASC)

www.mdstudentcouncils.org

Greetings Advisors!

"We all have the capacity to be a superhero. In order to become one, you just have to find your unique power of ability and exploit it for the greater good. The cape and mask are optional accessories, but a kind heart is essential." Robert Clancy

 IMMEDIATE ACTION *****

• Friday, October 21 through midnight, Saturday, November 5 – Registration for Fall Leadership Conference: Event is Saturday, November 19 – 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (Location: Hereford High School, Baltimore County). Please note – MASC is requesting that all participants bring a canned food item for the Maryland Food Bank, our state charity!

• Action by February 15th: NASC National Council of Excellence – Middle and high school student councils that provide quality leadership activities and service to their schools and communities can earn national recognition through NASC’s National Council of Excellence program.
Details and application: <https://www.nasc.us/distinguished-student-leaders?SSO=true>

• NASC Distinguished Student Leaders Program – An NASC challenging national skill and knowledge-based recognition program that identifies outstanding student council leaders in grades 9-12. On-going applications accepted, but final evaluations of a student’s application will take approximately 3-4 weeks. Though NASC does not impose annual deadlines for this recognition, it s recommend that students establish their own timelines, especially if they want to include the recognition on college and scholarship applications.
