LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Maryland Youth Advisory Council

Vice-Chairwoman 2018-Present

As Vice Chairwoman of MYAC, I assume the duties of the Chair in their absence and work with them and councilmembers in MYAC to give feedback and recommendations to the Governor, legislature, and other bodies regarding public policies and programs that affect the future of youth in Maryland.

Maryland Association of Student Councils

Chief of Staff 2017-2018

In my work as Chief of Staff, I assisted the President, worked one-on-one with the 38 MASC Staff to ensure their and MASC's success and took on spearheading the First MASC School Safety Forum in Annapolis and being one of the organizers for MASC's First Women's Leadership Conference.

Legislative Affairs Coordinator 2018-Present

Currently, as Legislative Affairs Coordinator I am responsible for proposing stances on youth-related bills to be considered by MASC to the MD General Assembly, representing MASC's position to the MDGA, promoting and planning MASC's lobbying day in Annapolis, and for empowering other students to be advocates for youth related issues with tools, skills, and legislative information.

GOCCP Juvenile Justice SAG Emerging Leaders Committee

Council member 2018-Present

As a member of the State Advisory Group (SAG) through the Emerging Leaders Committee I help to advise the Governor and legislature on compliance with the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention act, review and comment on grant proposals, monitor programs, and work to advocate for juvenile justice reform.

Baltimore County Student Councils

Public Relations Director 2017-2018, Executive Board Member 2017-2019

As Public Relations Director, I was the chief editor of the BCSC Newsletter, the BCSC Bulletin, and worked to increase and expand BCSC's outreach to schools and students in Baltimore County.

Baltimore County Superintendent's Advisory Council

Council member 2017-Present

As a member of the BCPS SAC, I help to advise the BCPS Superintendent about the youth opinion on educational policies and strive to serve as a powerful and accurate voice for students all over the county to the Superintendent and other administrative leaders.

Workshop Presenter, Trainer, and Conference Delegate

I served as a trainer of trainers in MASC in addition to presenting workshops and attending several National, State, and Local Conferences regarding youth leadership.
